

Hebrew Educator

Pardes Jewish Day School is seeking an experienced Hebrew educator. The teacher will join a team built on trust, collaboration and accountability to plan engaging Hebrew language education for all students. Qualified applicants must be fluent in Hebrew and love working with children. The candidate will embody a love of the Hebrew language both inside and outside of the classroom. This person will have a strong passion for Judaism and Israel and will inspire our students, teachers, and families to feel more connected to Jewish life and learning, as well as Israel and the Hebrew language. Pardes Jewish Day School (PJDS) is a private school in Scottsdale, Arizona, that serves students in grades K - 8. PJDS fosters a future-focused learning environment, where students are challenged and nurtured each and every day. We are seeking an intelligent, passionate, innovative and engaging teacher who will meet the needs of all students and their families.

The candidate will show evidence of putting the following constructs into action each and every day:

- * Engaging in curricular and pedagogical professional development opportunities on and off campus
- * Participating in the life of PJDS through attendance of school events, committee meetings, and extracurricular activities
- * Communicating frequently with parents through blogs, Facebook, or other media spaces
- * Demonstrating sensitivity toward each student's academic, social and emotional gifts and challenges, meeting each student where they are and challenging them to grow
- * Believing that discipline means "to teach" and implementing practices that support a caring community and restorative justice practices
- * Seeking out, valuing and implementing cross grade level learning opportunities throughout the year
- * Networking with other professionals outside of the school community
- * Establishing and maintaining effective working relationships with diverse groups

The candidate must be a lifelong learner who demonstrates:

A strong work ethic

A sense of humility

A sense of humor

A positive and optimistic attitude that is exhibited at all times
